

A FREE lunchtime showing of the film

PRINCESS ANGELINE

Chief Seattle's Daughter

A History of Native Seattle

Followed by a Panel Discussion on

Culture, Water, Land, and Treaties

Featuring

Chairwoman Cecile Hansen
(Duwamish Tribe)

Roger Fernandes (Lower Elwa
Klallam Tribe), Master Storyteller

Rick Williams (Ditidaht First Nation), Master Carver

Chris Stearns (Navajo Nation),
Seattle Human Rights Commission

Bailey

Third and Seneca Streets,
SEATTLE.

Thursday, April 28, 2011

11:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Microsoft Auditorium
Downtown Seattle Public Library
1000 Fourth Ave., Seattle

For more information, e-mail therose68@hotmail.com or call Pamela Masterman Stearns at 206-388-6630; Natalie Hunter SPU Change Team at 206-684-0632 or Tracey Rowland (ARWA) at 206-684-3839

Presented by CANOES, Seattle Public Utilities (SPU) RSJ Change Team and ARWA (Anti-Racist White Allies)